

Compare & Contrast:

- Ephesians 5:1-33 NLT
- Colossians 3:1-25 NLT

Memory Verse: Ephesians 5:21

“Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.”

Ephesians 5:21-24

- What does submission mean or look like in a marriage?
- Women, what are things you do or should do to help your husband? What are some ways you can show you are respectful of your husband?
- Men, what makes you feel respected within the home? What are ways your wife can help you to feel respected?
- Does this mean wives may not disagree with their husbands?
- How can you disagree while still being respectful?

Ephesians 5:25-28

- How did Jesus love the church? Do you love your spouse the way he loves?
- What does it mean to make your wife holy and blameless?
- Men, how do you ensure your wife is set apart and doing what God calls her to?
- How do you know your wife feels loved?
- Women, what can your husband do to help you feel loved?
- What are some ways your husband can help you grow in your relationship with God?

Ephesians 5:29-33

- What do you think this passage means when it says “the two will become one flesh”?
- What does this mean for a marriage?
- Are you working together or separately?
