HELP AND HOPE FOR CHILDREN

We are so thankful for the partnership God has given us with the Colibri Children's Home in Dominican Republic. This home is run by Ambassadors of Jesus Ministries under the leadership of Pastor Lucien Almanord and provides 24/7 care to orphans and vulnerable children in Santo Domingo. Through ongoing relationships, short-term mission trips, and regular financial support, we have been able to see children grow up and become leaders in the home, in their church, and in their community. The daily operations of the home are led by live-in houseparents - James & Jesula and other caregivers as needed.

Since 2010, all of the spiritual, physical, and educational needs of the Colibri Children's Home have been met, and God has provided for each need in miraculous ways!

THE NOT-SO FINE, FINE PRINT

In 2008, we were introduced to Pastor Lucien Almanord and the Ambassadors of Jesus Ministry in Haiti, and an incredible partnership was birthed. In 2011, North Pointe leaders prayed for God's direction in missions for the year. Shortly after, we received the call from Pastor Lucien – "The children are suffering. We need help." After the 2010 earthquake in Haiti, countless families and children sought refuge in Dominican Republic. The result was abandoned and orphaned children who needed care. Children were sleeping in the streets and on the floors of churches. Pastor Lucien was able to find a rental home to provide shelter, but they had no beds and not enough funds for basic necessities. By the end of 2011, God enabled North Pointe to financially support the Children's Home monthly to provide food and needs for the children. At the end of 2012, God miraculously provided over $160,000 in 27 days to purchase a permanent home.

The house is owned by North Pointe Church under the Dominican NGO, North Pointe Missions. The ministry is operated by Ambassadors of Jesus Ministries. All household expenses, school fees, uniforms, groceries, medical, and are paid for by North Pointe Missions and private donors committed to filling gaps when needed.
